

NAME: Honorable Allen Welsh Dulles

PRESENT POSITION: Director, Central Intelligence Agency

DATE AND PLACE OF BIRTH: 7 April 1893, Watertown, New York

SCHOOLS:

Princeton University, 1914, B.A.; 1916, M.A.
George Washington University, 1926, LL.B.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1914-1915 Teacher of English, Allahabad, India
1916-1926 U.S. Diplomatic Service; Assigned to Vienna, Berne,
Paris, Berlin, Constantinople and Department of State, Washington, 1920. Chief, Division of Near Eastern Affairs, 1922-26
1926-1941 Resigned from U.S. Diplomatic Service, 15 Oct
1926, to practice law with Sullivan & Cromwell,
New York
1942-1945 Office of Strategic Services
1946-1951 Law Practice
1951-1953 Deputy Director, Central Intelligence Agency
1953- Director, Central Intelligence Agency

OTHER:

With American Commission to Negotiate Peace, Paris, 1918
Delegate of U.S. to International Conference on Arms Traffic,
Geneva, Switzerland, 1925
Member, American Delegation to Preparatory Disarmament
Commission, Geneva, Switzerland, 1926
Legal Adviser to American Delegation, Three Power Naval Conference, Geneva, 1927; General Disarmament Conference,
Geneva, 1932-33
American Member, International Conciliation Committee under 1928 Treaty Between U.S. and Albania.

AWARDS AND DECORATIONS:

Medal for Merit; Medal of Freedom, 1946; Recipient of decorations from Governments of France, Italy and Belgium

PUBLISHED WORKS:

Can We Be Neutral?, 1936 (with Hamilton Fish Armstrong)
Can America Stay Neutral?, 1939 (with Hamilton Fish Armstrong)
Germany's Underground, 1947